THE
NATIONAL HONOR SOCIETY
MONTEVALLO HIGH SCHOOL
Montevallo, Alabama
1964

FOREWORD

This year, we—The Montala Staff—present to you an album of our "times." Ranging with many variations, from class time to dance time, they show days filled with happiness, honors, study, concern, school and club activities, and games—both won and lost. Each page turned will picture the 1963-64 year at Montevallo High School.

"Time an endless song"

Yeats

DEDICATION

The dedication of the 1964 MONTALA is made to one who "gives" much of her time to our school, its students, and its teachers—Mrs. Pauline Harrison. Serving in many ways, her presence is continually evident in all phases of our school and its life. Substitute teacher, PTA Lunchroom Chairman, PTA Vice President in charge of programs, and guest speaker for clubs and homerooms during the Christmas and Lenten seasons are only a few examples of the way she has added unforgettable moments to the school years.

"The time demands strong minds, great hearts, true faith and willing hands"

SCHOOL LIFE

"Time is a sort of river of passing events"

Aurelius

STUDENT COUNCIL

The Student Council is the student governing body of the school. Two delegates from each homeroom—grades nine through twelve—are elected each year to represent the members of their groups. Selection of officers takes place each spring as the entire student body elects their governing officials for the coming year.

Sponsoring the Community Chest Drive and correlating Homecoming activities are two main projects of the organization. During the current year, the sponsor and four delegates attended the State Convention held in Mobile. Representatives were Linda Cunningham, Sue Goggins, Linda Harrison, and Clay Nordan.

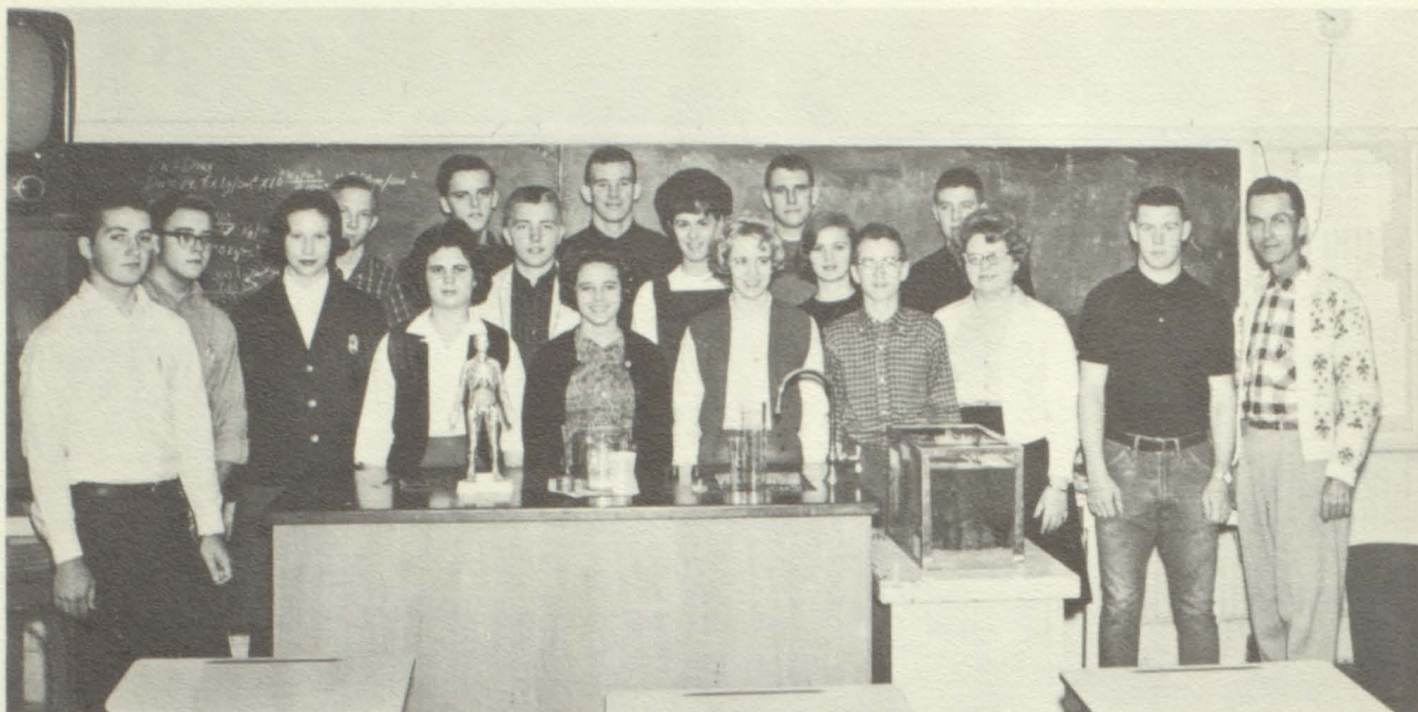

1963-64 officers are Charles McGehee, President; Bill Scott, Vice-President; Mimi Edfeldt, Secretary; and Nellie Nannini, Treasurer.

National Honor Society

The National Honor Society is composed of members from the eleventh and twelfth grades who have achieved and maintained a B+ average in their high school years and who have shown high standards of leadership, character, and service. Primarily acting as a service group within the school, the group edits the school yearbook, provides baby sitters for PTA meetings, maintains a scholarship file and recognizes outstanding scholastic achievement on the part of all students at the end of each semester grading period by awarding Honor Roll ribbons. Sponsor for the group is Mrs. Emily Pendleton.

JUNIOR ACADEMY OF SCIENCE

Designed to offer opportunities that will encourage a career in science, the Junior Academy of Science is open to students in grades nine through twelve. During the year, students are urged to work on special projects and reports. Officers of the organization are pictured left. They are Barbara Barclay, Secretary; Linda Cantrell, Reporter; Bob Brown, Treasurer; Geoff Chichester, President; Horacio Tabares, Vice-President; and David Thomas, Chaplain.

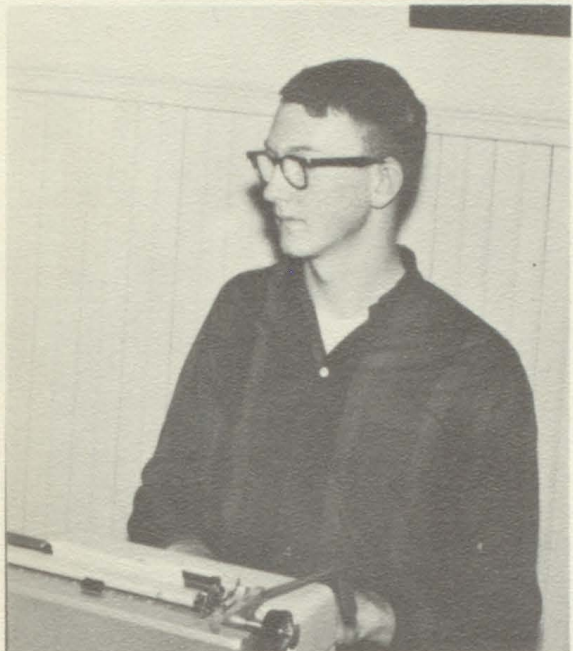

BUSINESS CLUB

THE BUSINESS CLUB is composed of seniors who are enrolled in shorthand and/or typewriting. The purpose of the club is to give these students opportunities to work together, to learn more about the operation of business and standards required by the business world, and to enjoy associating with each other in a social manner.

CAN WE MAKE IT IN HEELS?—Nellie Nannini, Wanda Langston, Mildred King, and Sandra Brantley look over the plans for the Club's field trip to Birmingham to visit Alabama Employment Service, Protective Life, and Southern Bell.

LOOK AT THE RESULTS—Sheila Pickett, Linda Warren, and Judy Lucas proudly display charts for MARCH OF DIMES drive. This year the school, with the Business Club as sponsor of the drive, contributed $741.91 to MARCH OF DIMES.

FUTURE TEACHERS OF AMERICA

The FTA is an organization made up of senior high students. Its main purpose is to promote teaching as a career. A big project for this year's group was the fourth annual observance of Teacher Appreciation Week, during which a tea was held for the Montevallo faculty.

This year, the Fifth District FTA Convention was in Montevallo. Presiding over the meeting was LaVaughn Jarvis, MHS student and District President for the group. Serving as secretary for the District was Angeline Davis.

A group of students and the sponsor, Mrs. Edfeldt, also attended the State Convention in Montgomery and were guests of the Shelby County Teacher's Association during one of their meetings.

FUTURE HOMEMAKERS OF AMERICA

One of the largest organizations within the school, FHA is designed for girls who have completed at least one year of home economics. Each year this group takes on several projects. An annual affair is the Family Night Chicken Fry sponsored jointly with the FFA. This year, the girls have sold cookbooks and Christmas cards as a part of a campaign to raise money to refurbish the entrance hall to the Home Economics Building. Sponsor for the group is Mrs. Rebecca McGaughy.

"M" CLUB

The M Club is composed of athletes who have met the requirements for lettering in one or more school sports. Letters are awarded as follows:

- 16 quarters in football
- 20 quarters in basketball
- 28 innings in baseball
- winning at least one point in track meets

No boy receives a letter if he is put off a team or quits before the season ends.

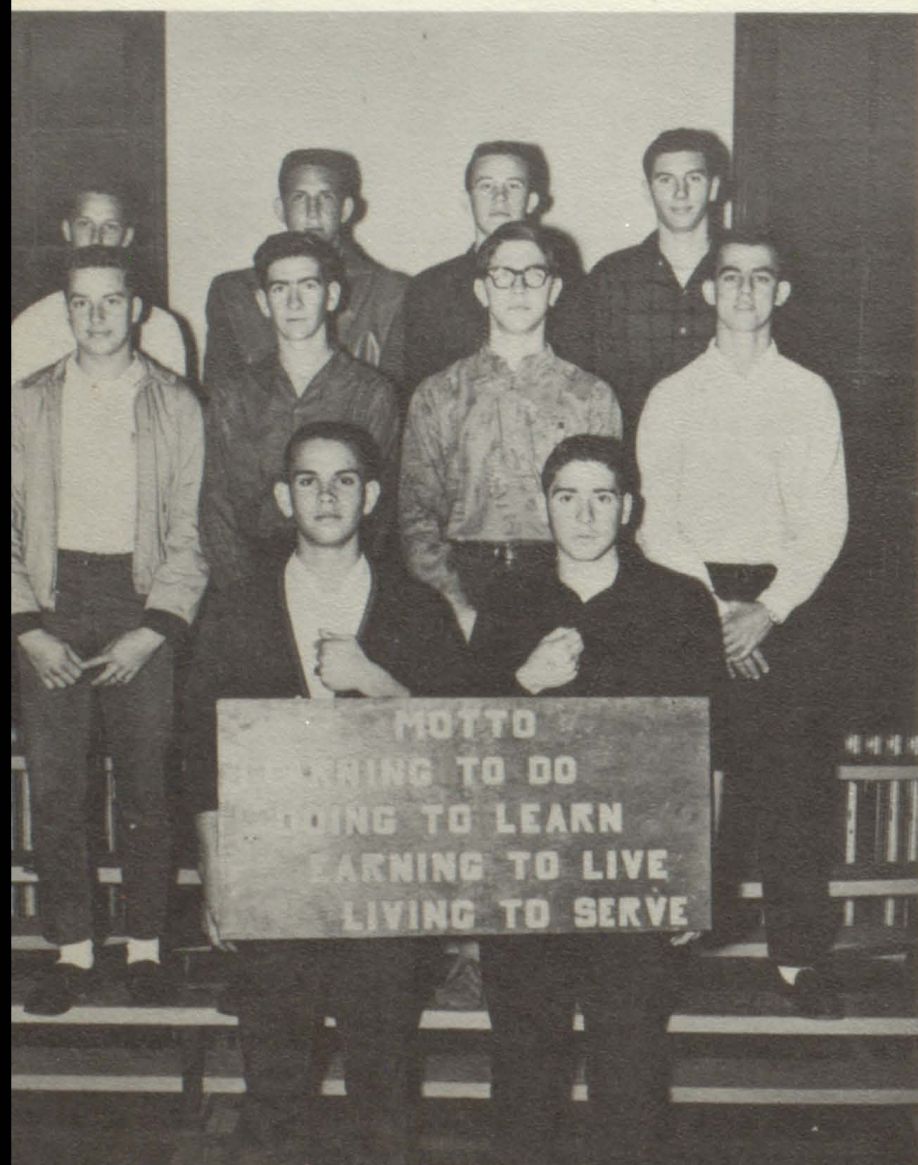

Striving to serve the school, the club undertakes a project each year that will benefit the students in some way.

Meeting twice a month, the group works under the direction of Mr. Theron Fisher. Programs are set up by a program committee under supervision of the sponsor.

The F.F.A. is composed of boys who are currently taking agriculture or who have enrolled in the course while in school. Pictured above are members who have belonged to the organization for more than one year—Chapter Farmers.

JUNIOR HIGH GIRL'S SCIENCE CLUB

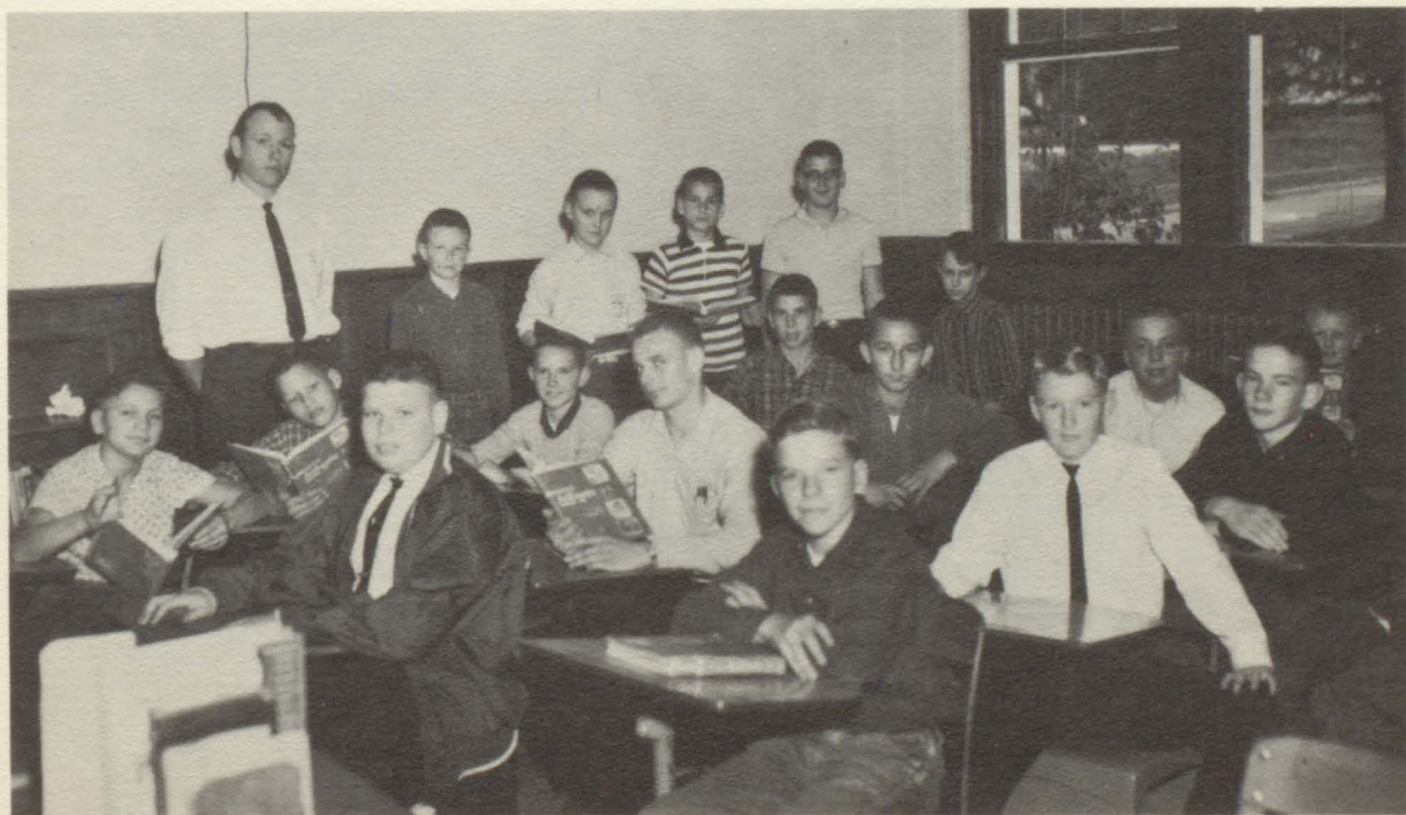

The Junior High Girl's Science Club is a new club in school this year. Previously, all interested junior high students belonged to the same group but due to the large number of participants it was decided to divide the members. Each girl belonging subscribes to a science magazine and meetings are built around discussing these magazines and other topics of interest. The main interest this year has been in the field of personal health and appearance. Reports, discussions, field trips, demonstrations and guest speakers have contributed to an understanding of this topic this year.

The Junior Girl's Chorus is composed of members from the seventh, eighth, and ninth grades. These girls meet three times a week for instruction and practice sessions under the direction of Mrs. Frances Anthony. Each year, the group presents several programs for PTA and school assemblies. Two senior high girls serve as accompanists—Beth Jeter and Lois Eady. One junior high chorus member—Cheryl McClure—also serves as an accompanist for the group.

SPECIAL HONORS AND AWARDS

Many special honors and awards are presented to students throughout the year. There are also other students who put forth extra effort to achieve — both for themselves and the schools. Here, and on the next few pages a few of these people will be pictured.

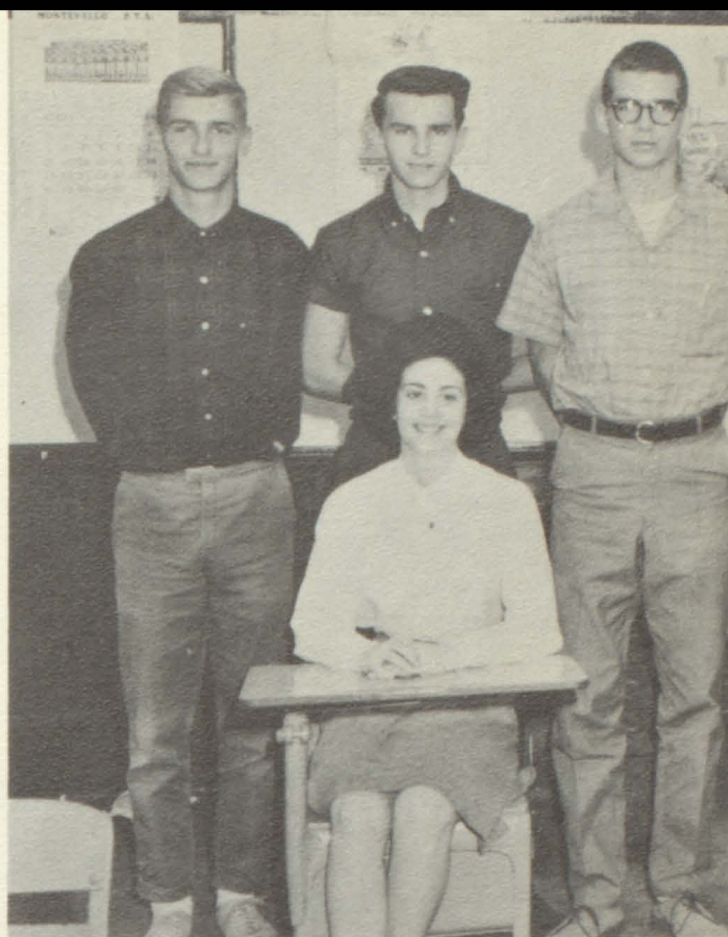

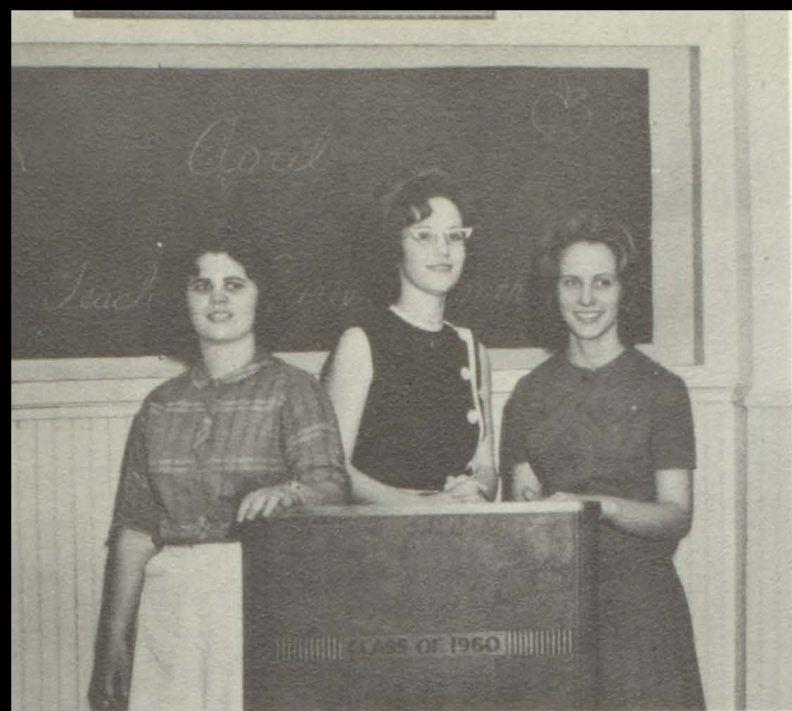

Angeline Davis, MHS senior, started out her senior year by capturing one of the first honors to be given. She was named Montevallo's Good Citizenship Girl.

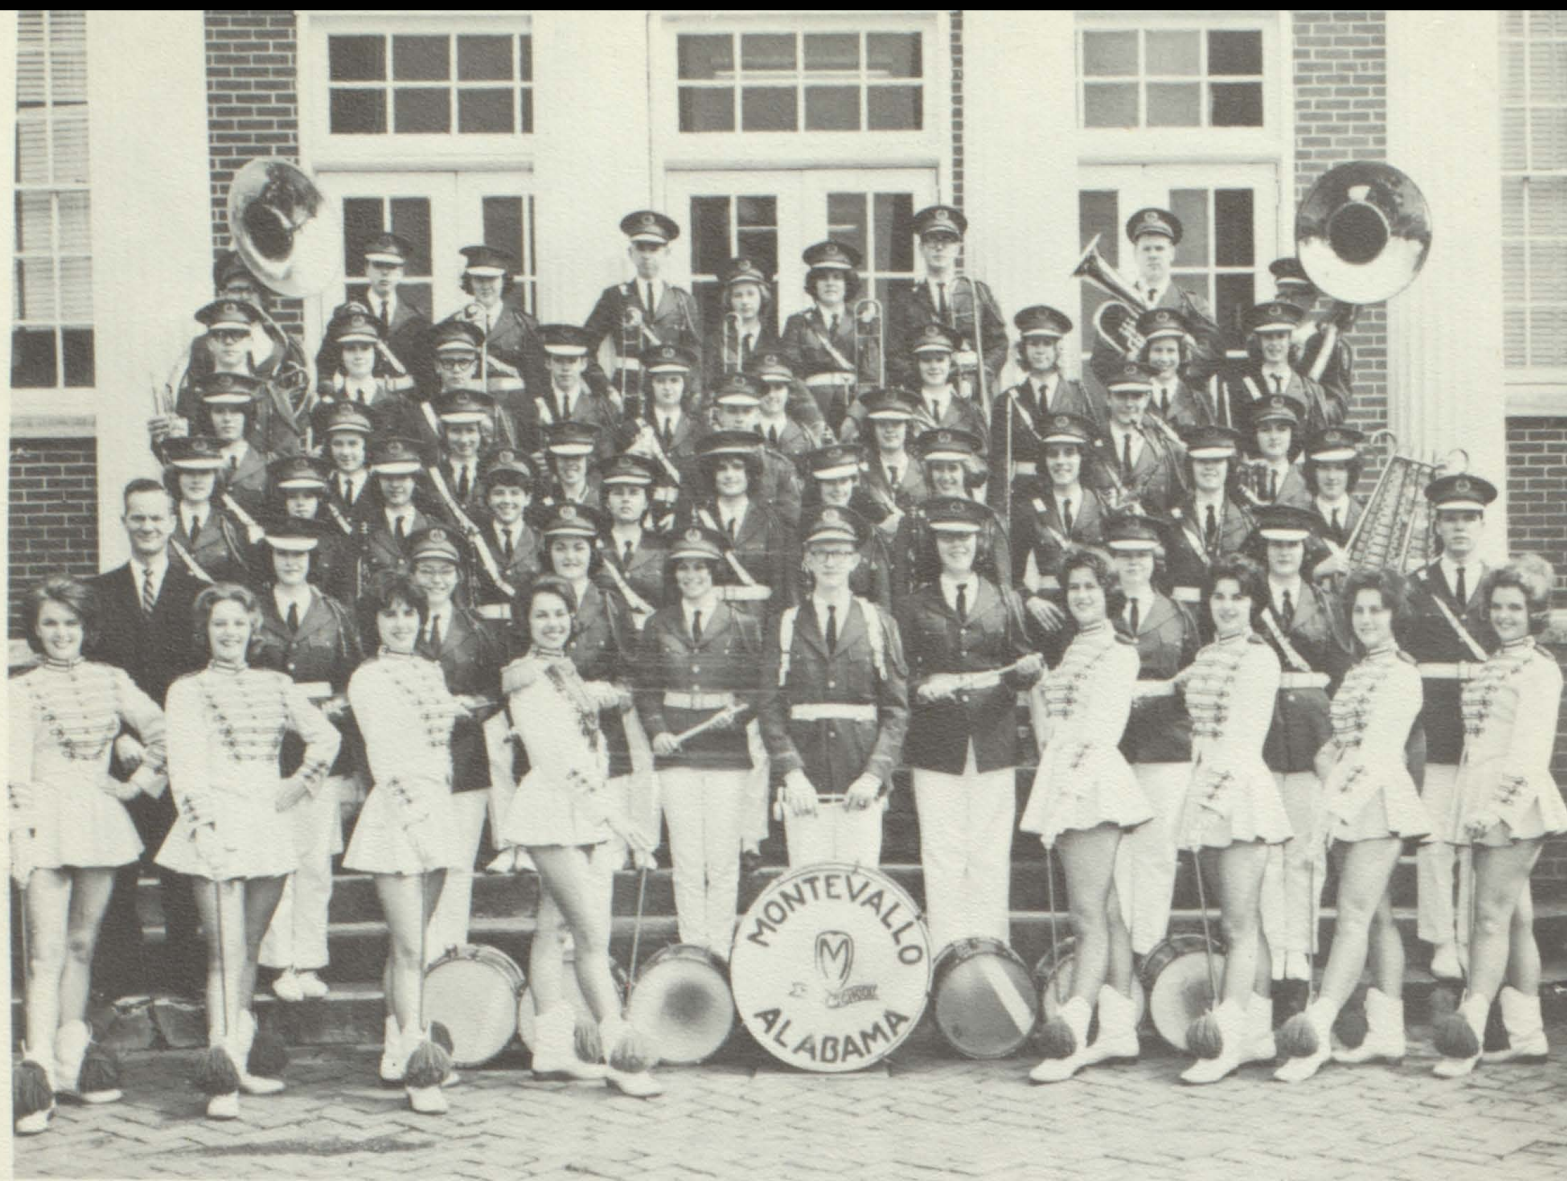

Pictured at top left are the boys who represented MHS at Boys' State during the summer of 1963—D. Thomas, M. Henson, W. Glosson, J. Thornton, L. Jarvis, C. Harrison, R. Allen, and C. McGehee. Representing the girls at Girls' State was Angeline Davis, shown at top right with her alternate, Nellie Nannini. Winner of a scholarship to Alverson-Draughon Business College as a result of her participation in the Alabama Junior Miss Contest was Linda Smith, MHS majorette (pictured left center). Shown at bottom left is Emily Stansell, three-time winner. A finalist in the Merit Scholarship Competition, Emily captured the Betty Crocker Homemaker's Award and also received an Honors Scholarship to Alabama College for the coming year. Montevallo's Brass Ensemble, composed of Bonard Hamric, Clay Nordan, Jonne Thornton, Claude Eddings, and Beth Jeter, is shown below. This group received an excellent rating during the All-State Music Festival held in Tuscaloosa.

Several MHS students received "speaking" awards during the 1963-64 school year. Three such winners shown top left are Rosemary Wooley, Wanda Langston, and Marilyn Kyser. Rosemary, county winner in the local Birmingham News "Youth Views the News" Contest, was also second place winner in the district competition. Wanda won the school award in the "Coosa River Development" Contest. Marilyn, representing the school in the County American Legion Oratorical Contest, spoke on the Constitution. Selected on the basis of papers written on the topic of citizenship, four MHS juniors attended the annual Citizenship Day Conference in Tuscaloosa. Shown top right are winners Eddie Potts, Kenneth Sproul, Robert Walters, and Ruth Crowe. Bottom left picture shows typing contest winner, LaVaughn Jarvis. Having placed first in the county, state, and regional competition, LaVaughn was invited to enter the National Typing Contest in Washington, D. C. Picture number four shows students elected by classmates from the tenth, eleventh and twelfth grades to represent them at County Government Day. Making the trip to Columbiana were Ruth Crowe, Judge of Law and Equity Court; Mimi Edfeldt, Superintendent of Education; Jean Phillips, Tax Assessor; Barbara Barclay, Tax Collector; Bill Scott, Circuit Clerk; Eddy Lawley, Sheriff; Patsy Fochtman, Commissioner of County Board of Revenue; Robert Walters, County Engineer; and Mike Garrett, Probate Judge. Not shown is Tommy Wyatt, Circuit Solicitor.

SENIOR WHO'S WHO

Each year, one of the senior activities is the selection of a "Who's Who." Using categories suggested by the Montala Staff and approved by the senior class, each member is allowed to vote for each title. This year students were elected to a total of eleven classifications. In addition to Who's Who listings, the class also selects in September the leadership team which will guide their activities through the year. Class officers shown above are Horacio Tabares, Vice President; Ricky Zucco, President; LaVaughn Jarvis, Secretary; and Eddie Southern, Treasurer. HOMECOMING 1963

Using the theme, "DDT," "Defeat Devils Tonight," Montevallo High School students carried out the traditional Homecoming festivities by electing a queen and her court, holding pep rallies and a parade, and inviting all graduates to attend the Montevallo-Verbena game and its post-game activities.

After elections, first event on the schedule was the big Thursday night pep rally with its bonfire, cheers, music, and pep talks. Friday's first event was the appearance of Queen Linda Smith and her attendants, Angeline Davis, Marilyn Kyser, Judy Lucas, and Donna Reynolds, at the head of the parade which heralded the official beginning of "Homecoming Day." That night, following the Bulldog-Devil tussle, alumni were royally entertained as "Distinguished Delegates" at a tea given in their honor. Students, faculty, and friends then assembled for dancing and the coronation ceremony in the high school auditorium.

MISS VALENTINE — BETH JETER

Beth Jeter—eleventh grade—came out in first place over a large field of contenders—grades nine through twelve—in Montevallo's first Miss Valentine Contest. The contest and accompanying dance, both sponsored by the Band Booster's Club, marked the beginning of what is scheduled to be an annual event.

Four girls—Barbara Barclay, Suzy Oesterling, Shirley Barrett, and Judy Lucas were selected by the judges to serve as court attendants to Miss Valentine.

FOOTBALL '63

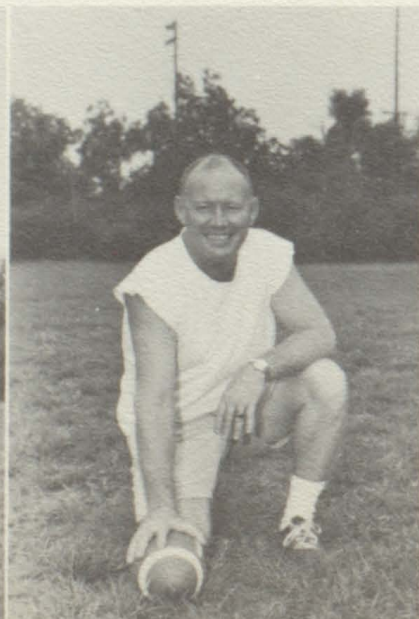

Opening the 1963 season, Montevallo's Bulldogs found that Yellow-jackets "really" could sting as the Vincent eleven defeated MHS for the first time in the last six years of competition. Although the 'Jackets were held to a scoreless first half by a strong defense led by Bill Scott and Chuckie Harrison, they came on strong in the third period and hit the pay dirt twice. Crossing the line once again in the final period of play Vincent came out the victor 21-0.

COACH CORBETT

COACH WOOLLEY

In the first home game of the season, MHS fans saw the Holtville Bulldogs "just get by" in a 6-0 tussle. Holtville's Jimmy Farmer earned the 6 on a one yard plunge after a fifty-two yard drive to the goal line.

After falling to Montevallo for six consecutive years, the Warriors of Thompson came up with a 13-6 victory over the Bulldogs for the third game of the season. The first TD of the contest came on the fifth play of the game as Alan Barclay scored for Montevallo following Norman Eiland's thirty-five yard run. Thompson scorers for the evening were Johnny Busby and Bill Jones.

The Bulldogs only winning game was played against Clanton's Tigers on a rain soaked home field. Early in the second quarter Larry Pack drove across the goal line from the four and Chuckie Harrison kicked the extra point. Eddie Gentry led the defense which allowed the Tigers to enter the Bulldog territory only once. Final score showed a 7-0 victory.

Homecoming action moves right along . . .

Montevallo's fifth game of the season resulted in a 13-13 draw with the Jemison Panthers. A brief rundown of the contest saw Larry Pack scoring 6 for the Bulldogs after a sixty-seven yard drive that began the event. Jemison's Sidney Chandler scored in the third quarter and was soon followed by Jim Parker who crossed the line paving the way for Joe Brasher's PAT. With only two minutes left in the game Mike Pickett scored from the two. Chuckie Harrison's kick arched high, hit the cross bar, and finally bounced over to even the score.

The next game found the Red Devils of Verbena dampening Montevallo's Homecoming festivities by defeating the Bulldog 21-6. The Devils began their tallying by taking a second quarter Bulldog fumble, scoring on the next play, and then adding an extra point. TD number two for Verbena came after racking up eleven plays following another Bulldog fumble. With only two minutes remaining, the Red Devils scored again. Pack scored the only Bulldog TD following a sixty yard drive in the final quarter.

The Shelby County Wildcats—a championship team—rolled past the Bulldogs in a 34-0 victory. After being held scoreless in the first quarter, Shelby crossed the line three times before half time. The third quarter was also scoreless but Rusty Harden started things moving in the fourth with a twenty-two yard TD run. Kenny Skelton scampered eighty yards for another late in the quarter.

The Calera Eagles gained their second Montevallo victory in history as they came in with a 26-6 triumph over the Bulldogs. Scoring twice in the second quarter they went on to repeat the double TD's in the second half. Norman Eiland scored the only Bulldog touchdown after a seventy yard drive in the final quarter.

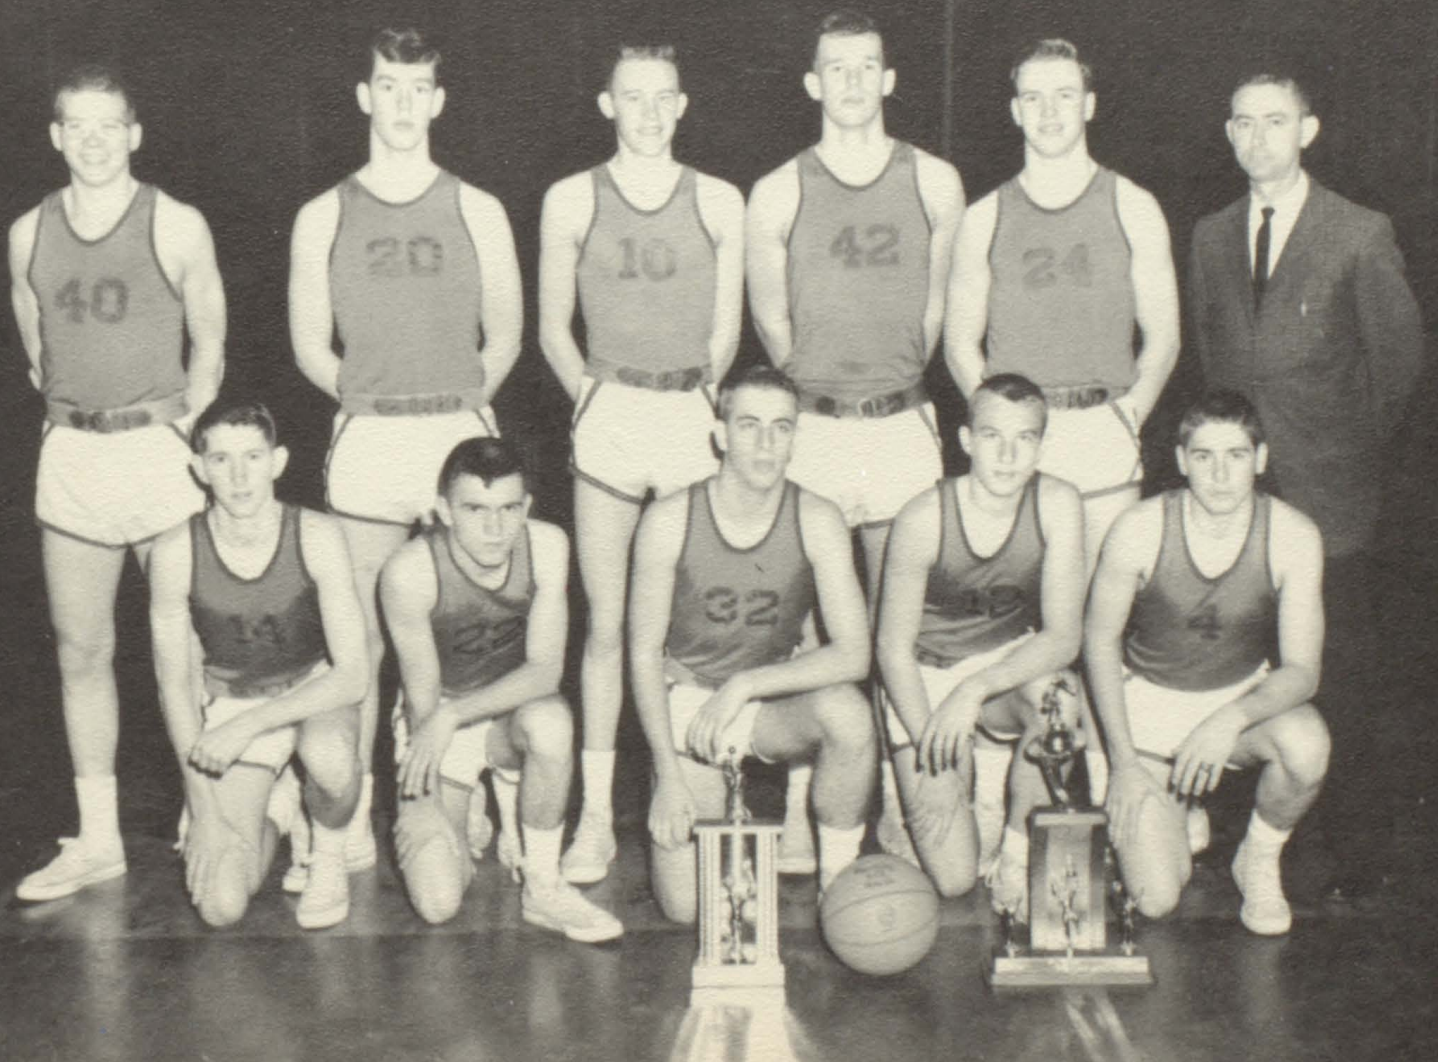

Continuing a perfect season, the Cordova Blue Devils defeated the Bulldogs with a thrilling performance by quarterback Tim O'Neil. Running, passing, and kicking he helped pave the way for a 26-0 victory.

The season ended with a 40-6 romp by the B. B. Comer Tigers of Sylacauga. Bill Parker started the Tiger scoring in the first quarter with a fifty-six yard TD run. Recovering a Bulldog fumble on the play after the next kick, Comer again hit pay dirt. Parker soon crossed the line again and was followed by another Tiger who took a pass fifty-six yards for a second period touchdown. After a scoreless third, Comer came back twice in the final period of play to end the game.

Jerry Lucas, third baseman, and Grady Partridge, second baseman, represented Montevallo in the East-West Tryout game at Clanton on May 17. In that game, to win an All-State berth, Jerry had a perfect day afield and at the plate. In ten innings of ball he hit four for four and walked three times. In the All-State game in Birmingham, June 5, he played three innings at second base. He had a single in two trips to the plate.

TRACK '63-'64

Montevallo's track team—a relative newcomer in the local athletic program—is pictured below. Members are Tommy Baker, Kenneth Pickett, Danny Bearden, Alan Barclay, Mike Pickett, Jimmy Birdsong, Kenneth Driver, Robert Walters, Charles Brownlee, Ronnie Allen, Bill Scott, Kenneth Sproul, and Eddie Potts. Participating in the first annual Shelby County Track Tournament the team came in third behind Calera and Indian Springs with three team members, Potts, Sproul, and Walters, capturing first places.

Champions Walters and Potts

Various track team members picked up honors as the year's competitions came along. MHS's 440 relay team came in third place when the District Meet was held at Legion Field in May. Also capturing awards at Legion Field were Eddie Potts who won the mile in 5:57.6 and Robert Walters who placed second in the 880. Both boys had previously won the county titles in these events. Walters had also won the State Meet cross-country title in earlier competition.
